

LOS ANGELES ALUMNAE PANHELLENIC ASSOCIATION 2017 WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

To be Presented at the Woman of the Year Award Reception
Wednesday, April 12, 2017

Since 1973, Los Angeles Alumnae Panhellenic Association (LAAPA) has recognized outstanding area NPC alumnae for their exceptional service in the areas of community, civic, professional, and/or philanthropic achievement.

Nominations for the 2017 Woman of the Year are now being accepted. The following are the Submission Guidelines to Nominate a Candidate for consideration as the 2017 Los Angeles Alumnae Panhellenic Association Woman of the Year.

The candidate should exhibit exemplary work in one or more of the following categories:

- OUTSTANDING SORORITY WORK, community, and/or philanthropic work;
- OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY, and/or PHILANTHROPIC WORK, and sorority work;
- OUTSTANDING CAREER ACHIEVEMENTS, and sorority work.

Please use the above guidelines in making your selection and compiling the nomination letter. Submit your detailed nomination letter, resume and any other pertinent information about the candidate via email by Wednesday, March 15, 2017 to: LAAPA Vice President Mande Adams - Laapavp@gmail.com.

The 2017 Woman of the Year honoree will be announced the evening of April 12, 2017. More information is forthcoming. For questions about nomination process or Woman of the Year in general please contact Mande Adams at (847) 404-7306 or at Laapavp@gmail.com.

Los Angeles Alumnae Panhellenic Association (LAAPA) is a National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Alumnae Panhellenic. Since our founding in 1938, we have worked to foster a constructive relationships with the colleges and universities in the Los Angeles area and the NPC organizations at these institutions of higher learning. LAAPA is a 501(c)(3) organization under the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service - FEIN 32-0300572.